

ELECTRIC WOMAN

The Electric 9

The Electric 9:

Nine 90-minute Leadership coaching calls over nine weeks, every Wednesday, starting March 19th 2014

This programme has been designed for women who are serious about bringing out their most vibrant and Electric self. This is not for girls. This is for bold, pioneering women who are fierce in claiming the life they want.

Nikki and a team of internationally-renowned coaches and experts will take you on a leadership journey to unlock your power as an Electric Woman.

An Electric Woman is...

A woman who is Real and honest with herself, led by her truth, not her fears. She is intuitive and fierce, a Woman who acts on her desires. And she is Electric: abundant, open to magic and the infinite possibility that is her life.
